

Sponsor Men Who Cook

Support One of Splendor's Favorite Community Events

Men Who Cook is one of the Splendor ISD Education Foundation's signature fundraising events, bringing together local businesses, community leaders, and school supporters for an evening of great food, friendly competition, and giving back.

Each year, more than 200 guests attend to sample dishes prepared by local "celebrity chefs" while raising funds that directly support innovative classroom grants, student scholarships, and educational opportunities across Splendor ISD.

Sponsorship Opportunities

Businesses and organizations have the opportunity to partner with us through a variety of sponsorships designed to fit different levels of involvement. Sponsorship benefits may include:

- Recognition before, during, and after the event
- Company logo featured on event signage and marketing materials
- Social media and website recognition
- Event tickets for employees, clients, or guests
- The opportunity to demonstrate your commitment to education in our community

Whether you're a returning partner or sponsoring for the first time, your investment helps create opportunities that inspire students and empower educators.
